Lions Carnival To Be Held Here Aug. 15-19

Seventh annual Lions Club Carnival will be conducted next week on the east and south sides of the courthouse square. Proceeds from the event will be used partially to finance the installation of six barbecue grills and the construction of patios and sheltered tables near the grills, which will be located in Connor Park. Funds may not permit the completion of the project this year.

Carnival will open at 6:30 p.m. and closes at 10:30 Monday through Saturday nights.

Members of the club will operate twelve booths, featuring games of bingo and the dunking board. High school and college girls in bathing suits will decorate the board--and the tank of water if balls thrown at platform-releasing levers hit the bullseye.

Junior Chamber of Commerce will maintain one booth. Besides the game booths, a concession stand will be operated. Also, cotton candy and snow cones will be on sale. Rides, furnished by an Amarillo amusement company, will be available for both children and adults.

Carroll Vaughan, Lions Club Carnival chairman, is being assisted in the project by Marvin Fite and his community betterment, civic improvement committee. Members of that committee are Gene McGlasson, Bob Darnell, Bill Counsellor, and Charles Smallwood. Art Brewer is president of the Canyon club.

Students Start Enrolling Aug. 25

Canyon schools open their doors Monday, August 29, to officially begin classes, according to Superintendent Joe A. Gibson.

School buses will operate that day and the cafeteria will be open.

Registration for high school students starts Thursday August 25 at 9 a. m. Seniors will register from 9 to 12 and juniors from 1 until 4.

Continuing next day, sophomores will register from 9 until 12 and freshmen from 1 until 4.

Junior high school students in grades 5, 6, 7 and 8 will report at the junior high gymnasium from 9 until 4 Friday, August 26. Elementary students in grades 1 through 4 will register according to the following plan the same day:

"N" through "Z" from 9 until 12 and "A" through "M" from 1 until 4.

Gibson said that enrollment will be up about 100 students from last year's tally of 1372 students. He added that the new building will be ready for class work even though the building is not entirely completed.

First holiday for Canyon youths is slated Monday, September 5, Labor Day.

Texas Co. Drills Again

Amid persistent rumor that the Texas Company may be onto something "hot" this time, that company this week spudded in a new Randall County location about 4 miles northeast of Canyon.

The drilling crew was busy spudding in the well late Tuesday afternoon. Mud already was being mixed early this week as preparations were being made to begin drilling.

Water is being brought in by pipe to the location from a nearby surface lake. Slush pits were prepared over the week end.

The new location is the Texaco No. 1 Ralph Storm. It is located in sec. 17, blk. 6, H&GN. It is about six miles northwest of the hole abandoned earlier by Texaco.

The abandoned well, shut down as a "dry hole", was the Texaco No. 1 G. H. Leseberg. The Leseberg was drilled under a cloak of secrecy and was much discussed throughout Panhandle oil circles.

The No. 1 Ralph Storm is scheduled to explore to a depth of near 8,500 feet. Doing the drilling is the J. M. Johnson Company of Pampa. Geologists have not arrived at the location as yet.

Oil Driller Injured Tuesday

Bob Webster, driller from Spearman, had a narrow escape Tuesday.

Webster, employed at the Texas Company location northeast of Canyon, suffered a severe, jagged gash on the head when he was struck by a falling turnbuckle. The turnbuckle, weighing about 15 pounds, fell about 50 feet. Witnesses said it hit some oilfield machinery and then struck Webster a glancing blow on the back of the head.

The driller was treated by a Canyon physician. Twelve stitches were required to close the wound.

City Raises Water Rates For College

Canyon City commission Tuesday night passed an ordinance substantially raising the water rates for West Texas State College.

The first 3,000 gallons of water per month now will cost the college $1.00 per thousand gallons. The next 3,000 gallons will go over the meter at 60 cents per thousand.

The next 9,000 gallons will be charged out at 40 cents per thousand and the next 15,000 will cost the college 25 cents per thousand. The next 2,000,000 gallons will be billed at 23 cents per thousand and all water in excess of 3,000,000 gallons will be billed at 22 cents per thousand.

The new rates will be based on monthly consumption as were the old rates.

The college got city water considerably cheaper under the old rates. Formerly the first million gallons were billed out at 20 cents per thousand gallons. The second and third millions were billed at 17.5 cents per thousand gallons. All in excess of 3,000,000 gallons was charged at 15 cents per thousand gallons.

In other action Tuesday night, the commission voted to open (Continued on page 7)

Street Construction Underway In Canyon

Work got under way Saturday on a street widening and road improvement program in downtown Canyon and west on highway 217.

Construction will consist of grading, structures, flexible base and hot mix asphaltic concrete pavement.

Work is scheduled to be completed by November 1.

City manager Bill York said that sidewalks along the north side of the square will be moved back approximately five feet. From 15th Street west Fourth Avenue will be widened.

Other improvements to be added are traffic lights at the corners of Fourth Avenue and 15th Street and 16th Street.

Indian Working With Museum This Week

Chevahtah, one of five councilmen of the Comanche Indian tribe, is working this week with Jack Hughes, director of paleontology at Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Chevahtah is touring the lower floor of the museum, adding information and further classifying Indian exhibits.

He is also one of five councilmen of the Inter-Tribe Council of the Comanche, Kiowa and Apache tribes. His wife accompanied him to Canyon.

Ranch Tour Slated Aug. 22

A Hereford cattle tour is scheduled for August 22, with stops at seven Randall and Deaf Smith County ranches.

Headquarters for the tour will be the Hotel Jim Hill in Hereford. Registration will begin the evening of August 21.

Reservations may be made through the Jack Renfro Office 311 Sampson, or Dameron Hereford ranch, Box 428, Hereford.

A buffet breakfast will be served at 7 a.m. in the Hotel Jim Hill ballroom, and a rest stop and refreshments is set for the Walter Graham ranch, southwest of Canyon. Lunch will be served at 1 p.m. in the new high school cafeteria in Hereford, and a watermelon feed at the Dameron ranch will close the day's events.

Included on this year's tour are the ranches of Howard Gault and son, R. L. Cocanougher, Walter Graham, Jack Renfro, H. D. Robbins and son, Colby Conkright and son, and the Dameron Hereford ranch.

Last year's tour drew about 500 persons.

Loop Vote Petition Ready For Commissioners

Petition requesting a $350,000 bond issue had been signed by the required number of persons at presstime Wednesday.

Earl Marrs of northern Randall County circulated the petition. Fifty signatures are required and he had over 40 names when he quit Tuesday. Marrs picked up the petition from Randall County judge Wayland C. Angel Tuesday.

Marrs, a property owner along the proposed route, deeded land for right-of-way to the county in 1955. One other person, C. W. Guthridge, said that he would donate land to the county for the road.

The southeast section of this loop accounts for $225,000 of the proposed bond issue. Another $125,000 would be to buy right-of-way for the Washington Street railway overpass.

Monday, at commissioners' court meeting, bondsmen, again were present. Despite urging from bond company representatives, the commissioners refused to name any one company to act as financial advisor for the county.

"Whenever a petition is presented to us, we'll select who will act as financial advisor," Wayland Angel, county judge told them.

One bondsman, Bob Davis, said his company would prepare a petition, but interested people

School Budget Hearing Set

Public hearing will be held on the proposed budget for Canyon schools August 16 at 8 p. m. Meeting will be in superintendent Joe A. Gibson's office.

The $664,660.00 proposed budget is $75,720.00 higher than last year's budget of $588,940.00.

Increases in the budget mainly appear in salaries of administrative workers and teachers and plant operation. Decreases are noted in health services and pupil transportation.

Increases in receipts in the proposed budget show a $38,237 increase from local sources and a $37,500 increase from state sources. On a dollar breakdown, 53 cents of every dollar spent in the school system comes from local sources and the state furnishes 47 cents.

On a dollar breakdown of disbursements 59 cents goes for instruction, 17 cents for debt service, 4 and one-half cents for administration, 6.3 cents for transportation, 8.6 for maintenance and operation, 2.2 for capital outlay and 2.1 for fixed charges, student activity and transfers out and other.

The 1961 proposed budget has been apportioned in the following manner:

Administration, $30,000; instruction, $391,714; health services, $500; pupil transportation, $42,000; operation of plant, $50,800; maintenance of plant, $8,000; fixed charges, $5,000; food services, $500; student body activities, $3,750; capital outlay, $14,796; debt service, $112,600; and outgoing transfers, $5,000.

Globe-News Writer Speaks At Lions

Louise Evans, Globe-News political pundit, described her adventures at the Democratic National Convention as she spoke last week at a regular meeting of the Canyon Lions Club.

Miss Evans is in charge of the Globe-News editorial page. She had returned the morning of her speech from an extended trip during which she covered the campaign of Lyndon Johnson, vice-presidential candidate.

She was a member of the press corps which accompanied the candidate.

STRIKING UP a friendly conversation with someone in the doctor's office can be hard to do if you are forty times his size. Hans, the Saint Bernard, weighs in the neighborhood of 200 pounds while Willy, the Chihuahua, may weigh 6 pounds soaking wet. Carolyn Glazener holds the small dog.

Let The People Rule

We want to commend the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce for its decision not to oppose the calling of a vote by the people on the loop issue.

Whether you are for the proposed loop or not, it is hard to be against letting the people have a say on it. After all, in a system such as ours the people are sovereign and should always have the last say.

There can never be anything wrong with letting the people vote on any major issue which affects them. The News sides with Old Andrew Jackson in his oft' quoted statement, "Let the People rule."

For those who think elections are too expensive let us leave this thought, the Soviet Union probably spends less on elections than any other country in the world with the possible exception of other countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Final Speaker At WT Science Meet Tonight

Final speaker for the National Science Foundation Summer Institute at West Texas State College will be Dr. Frank Verbrugge, professor of physics and associate dean of the institute of technology at the University of Minnesota. Dr. Verbrugge will speak on "Aspects of Modern Physics" at 8 p.m. tonight in the Little Branning Iron Theatre in the Fine Arts Building. The public is invited.

A graduate of Calvin College and the University of Missouri, where he earned his Ph.D., Dr. Verbrugge taught at Missouri, Northeast Missouri State Teachers College, Carleton College, and Columbia University before going to Minnesota. He was a staff member of the radiation laboratory at Massachusetts Institute of Technology for two years.

A member of the American Physical Society, American Association of Physics Teachers, Minnesota Academy of Science and Sigma Xi, Dr. Verbrugge is the author of "Experiments in General Physics" and a number of articles in such journals as the Physical Review and American Journal of Physics.

Collingsworth County Ex-Residents To Meet

Ex-residents of Collingsworth County are invited to a reunion August 20 in Elwood Park in Amarillo, according to Mrs. Robert D. Oldham of Canyon. The get-together is scheduled for 5 p.m. in the northeast corner of Elwood, with a picnic supper to be held at 7 p.m. Every ex-resident of the county is invited to attend, Mrs. Oldham said.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Canyon probably has the brightest growth prospects in the entire Panhandle for a town its size.

There is little doubt that the residential district will continue to expand. There are few barriers to residential growth on any side of the town.

City Manager Bill York says the water supply is almost unlimited. School facilities are excellent through both high school and college levels.

Randall County all but has a corner on the Panhandle's recreational facilities. Palo Duro Canyon lies a scant 10 miles to the east, Buffalo Lake just 10 miles away and Canyon has a fine museum which we understand is visited by some 125,000 persons a year.

Canyon is, without doubt, one of the cleanest little towns we've ever seen. With the trend of things toward suburbia, the future appears to be unlimited.

The residential growth is bound to come. Whether the town develops from a business standpoint to keep up with residential growth is strictly up to the people who operate businesses. We think that business here can and will keep pace.

Folks who live in Canyon are going to drive away to shop only if shopping here in Canyon is not made appealing.

Proper and consistent advertising is just as essential to making a business appealing as is keeping show windows clean.

Many people, politicians especially, seem to have forgotten that it was free enterprise that made this country what it is today. There is no incentive in this world to match that of being able to enjoy at leisure the fruits of ingenuity, thrift and labor. Kill this incentive as confiscatory federal taxes and regulations are doing today and you've dealt a death blow to free enterprise.

We wonder if either Jack Kennedy or Richard Nixon—both veterans—will remember the boys being illegally held in Chinese prison camps. America's disgrace of the century is that some 500 American soldiers who followed the flag in Korea still are languishing in Chinese prison camps. For a time this fact was vehemently denied by the State Department but later admitted by Eisenhower who asked Nikita Khrushchev to intervene in the prisoners' behalf with the Red rulers of China. Those soldiers FOLLOWED THE FLAG AND THE FLAG SHOULD FOLLOW THEM.

We hope that such issues as the loop do not drive a wedge between the people of north and south Randall County. This could happen if aggravated.

We lived in a divided county once and progress there came the hard way until people of opposing parts of the county finally buried the hatchet.

We are speaking of Lamb County. It was popular for people in Olton to hate Littlefield. By the same token, Littlefield fold suffered from upturn of the nose when confronted by people from Olton.

For years Lamb County—third ranking in the state in production of agricultural products—did not even have a court house. County offices were housed in the Littlefield city hall.

FAST WORK on the part of the veterinarian and John Rodney Green, 10, saved the cow shown above. It had eaten a piece of plastic one yard square and was about to die when the "vet" and John operated. John points to the incision in photo. Proudly displaying part of the plastic sheet which nearly claimed his cow, John Rodney says it was hard work helping the veterinarian. John will attend Canyon schools this fall.

Dr. Frank Verbrugge Final Science Speaker

Dr. Frank Verbrugge, associate dean of the University of Minnesota Institute of Technology, will be the final speaker for the National Science Foundation at West Texas State College.

Dean Verbrugge will speak on "The Atom" at 8 tonight in the Fine Arts Building on the WT campus.

A native of Chandler, Minnesota, Dr. Verbrugge is a member of the American Physical Society, the American Association of Physics Teachers, Minnesota Academy of Science, the editorial advisory board of "Physics Today," and the advisory panel of the Summer Institute Program of the National Science Foundation. He received his B. A. degree from Calvin College at Grand Rapids, Michigan, and his M. A. and Ph. D. Degrees from the University of Missouri at Columbia.

Animals Can 'Do Darndest Things'

Good follow-up to a famous television personality's book, "Kids Say the Darndest Things," would be "Animals Do the Darndest Things."

Strangest example in the area came up recently when a milk cow belonging to Billy Green decided that a 3-foot square piece of plastic was a gourmet's dream. After making a snack of the plastic sheet, the cow had to undergo surgery to have it removed.

Latest reports indicate that "Old Bossy is up and doing fine."

Another case was when the patient just downright refused to cooperate. An Appaloosa colt was placed in a cast after breaking its right foreleg about two months ago. Because horses are "bad patients" and can't understand that they must be still to let the leg heal, he fought the cast until he broke the leg again—this time in another place, besides the original break.

The veterinarian consulted a bone specialist in Amarillo, and the pair decided to put stainless steel pins in the bone until the break heals. Again, the patient is reportedly doing fine.

One chapter in the book could be dedicated to the "darndest things people do to animals."

We hope that all the people of Randall County can always work for the progress and good of Randall County so that this great area can develop as it should. TFM

Plastic Nearly Claims Bossy

BY KORKYE MARTIN

WHO AM I last week was Mrs. Moss (Patricia) Henderson, 2601 Ave. Did you guess?

WHY DON'T THEY design a billfold with a compartment for the check book, that when the little woman runs out of checks on Dollar Days can begin using money.

FIVE-YEAR-OLD explains a twinkling star the way: Mommie, see that sparkling and moving up in the sky? That's my angel dancing there. God put her there to watch over me tonight while He rests. Isn't she beautiful!

IF YOU HAVE EVER had "left-over" sprinkled down ironing, you'll appreciate the following true story. If you have not, you wouldn't understand.

The young daughter of a Canyon school teacher returned from a visit to her grandmother's and queried, "Mother, why don't we keep fruit in our refrigerator? Grandmother does, instead of all those old clothes?"

WHO AM I?

I am quite a versatile and energetic woman. It is difficult to distinguish my vocation from my avocations, and there are several. All are concerned with beauty, the arts and mental stimulation. I also play bridge. I have a married daughter, I have been variously a redhead, blonde and brunette, but have had my hair cut only twice in my life. My first name is used by both sexes.

WHO AM I?

REMEMBER! Call Korkye, 4711, or write to The Canyon News, Box 240, if you know who she is. We'll have the answer next week.

SEE YOU around the corner.

John E. Regal, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wood of Canyon, was graduated July 25 from the junior platoon leaders class at the Marine Corps school in Quantico, Virginia.

Regal will return to Canyon September 3 and will enter West Texas State College this fall. He expects to receive his degree this fall.

The six week course was designed to prepare him for a second lieutenant's commission in the Marine Corps, following graduation. After receiving his commission, he will begin a 26-week course at the officers basic school, also in Quantico.

A graduate of Amarillo High School, Regal attended the University of Oklahoma two years. He is a member of the Trinity Methodist Church in Amarillo and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon social fraternity at OU.

that the migrants had no need for food or clothing during the summer when cash is plentiful, but are in need during the winter because they do not understand saving money or principles of credit.

The operation and organization of the Migrant Ministry of Hereford was explained by Virgil Dodson, building director of the Social Services Center of Hereford, in Friday morning's meeting of the United Church Women in the First Christian Church.

The Migrant Ministry does social work with the Mexican migrant workers, and is the only center in Texas sponsored by more than one church.

Dodson, in discussing the problems of a town in adequately serving migrant workers, said "There is no easy solution, no magic wand."

He continued that a community could not "hide its head in the sand, like an ostrich." Migrants benefit the entire community by harvesting crops and spending most of their money in local merchants' stores.

The United Church Women of Hereford pioneered what is now the Migrant Ministry. After they saw the size of the project they had undertaken, they turned over about $300, which represented seven years work, to the Migrant Ministry.

The Hereford center was built by volunteer workers who donated labor and time to build missions where ever they are needed. Dodson said workers at Hereford had included a Lutheran minister from Iceland, a couple from Nebraska, and "three or four young people from Texas."

"The original plan called for a center that would cost about $3,000, but the people have gotten behind this project and donated until the building we have would cost about $14,000 at commercial prices," he said.

Problems of the migrants include recreation, health education, and economic standards.

Dodson told the church women

Young Squad, New Coaches WT Trademark

New coaching staff and a young squad will carry the West Texas State football banner into battle this fall.

Just before going into grid drills September 1, coach Joe Kerbel says he is well pleased with the overall enthusiasm. "However," he injected, "let's be realistic; we are young, we are slow and we are trying to learn a new system."

That the Buffalo squad is young is pointed out in the breakdown of the squad. The 55-man roster has only nine seniors while there are 26 juniors, 19 sophomores and one freshman.

Kerbel is introducing a split-T, pro-type offense as the Buffs attempt to rebuild from two straight 1-9 seasons. Kerbel's offense features wide-open football, complete with a lot of passing, pitchouts and split plays.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

Jones Hedrick, 192-pound senior fullback who was team's second leading rusher last year.

Bill Bradley, 210-pound junior guard just out of Marines. He's former national teen-age weight lifting champ.

Gary Ward, 205-pound senior tackle who is steady and works hard. He had excellent speed for tackle.

Canyon Ball Club Downed By Amarillo Dusters 10-6

Canyon junior baseballers dropped their second game to the Amarillo Dusters Thursday night, 10-6.

"It's hard to win when every one in the infield chalks up an error in the first inning and lets in three unearned runs," coach Borden Price said.

The local team, composed of graduates of the Babe Ruth league was "organized" by three friends of baseball. The intention was to play several games during August with American Legion teams in the area. Since all legion teams have now been disbanded no more games will be played this year.

Price hopes his efforts will encourage Canyon baseball fans to be receptive to the formation of an American Legion team next year.

The Dusters showed the boys some good pitching. Southpaw Les Giles who started was in good form. He pitched the first two innings and the ninth and allowed one hit. Canyon filled the bases in the ninth on three bases on balls. Inno Inno could Canyon put together two hits. Most of their runs were scored as a result of bases on balls.

Ron Reynolds started for Canyon and deserved a better fate than to be the losing pitcher. He had allowed no hits going into the fourth but the disastrous first inning had put him behind. Bill Ritter pitched creditably the last four innings. Leon Henderson did the catching.

Blackaby Wins In Sales Test

Bruce Blackaby, Canyon Ford dealer, has been certified by Ford Motor Company as winner in the Ford Selling Fair conducted throughout the country during the months of May and June.

Bruce was notified recently by the Ford Company's Oklahoma City office.

Mr. Blackaby received several items of merchandise and $2,000 in cash in lieu of vacation trips. The prizes were offered on a basis of volume of sales during the two months.

Jerry Richardson To Play In Grid Classic Aug. 20

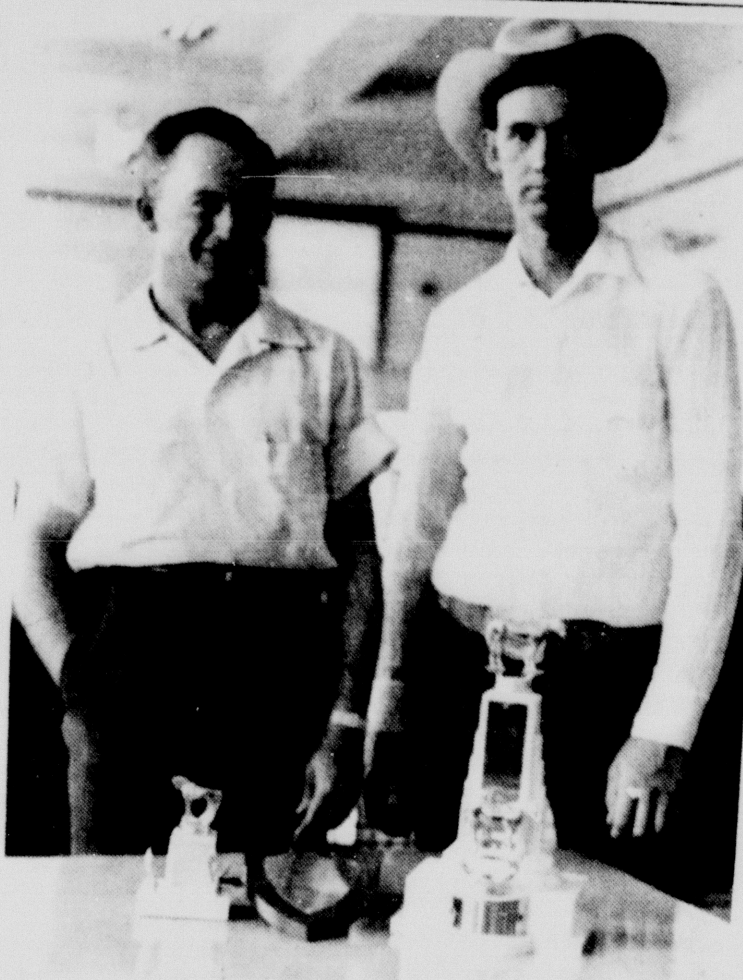

Jerry Richardson is one of three quarterbacks to call plays for the Sodabusters in their game with the City Slickers at Price College field in Amarillo August 20.

The Sodabusters, composed of players from the area's classes AA-A-B teams, will be seeking to snap the City Slickers' two game winning streak during the third annual Panhandle Grid Classic.

During the past two games, the City Slickers have staged great last half rallies to sew up the contest.

Sodabuster coach Morris "Snake" Bailey, former TCU standout, will have the material to give the Slickers another interesting game.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stokes entertained several house guests over the weekend. Among the visitors were their son, Johnny of El Paso. Other visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stokes of Calumet, Oklahoma, and Mansil Stokes and daughter, Mary Lynn.

Sheriff's Posse To Set Regular Practice Sessions

Randall County Sheriff's Posse members will soon have regular practice sessions in their new arena, according to president R. B. Allen.

The posse, since its organization in February has already copped three trophies out of five parade entries. One is third place in the Hereford Riders Club parade, another is third place in the Top O' Texas rodeo parade and second place in the Tulsa rodeo parade.

Big activity at the top of the posse's list is the Randall County Roundup and Old Settlers Reunion scheduled September 14-16.

In addition to rodeos and parades the posse will occasionally schedule a trail ride. Allen said that the club will have one this weekend in Palo Duro canyon.

"We have 78 members at the present time," Allen said, "and will welcome more." He said that anyone interested in joining can contact him or vice president Earl Reynolds.

Bill Woods of Seagraves is head of the twirling staff. He has been assisted by Scott Ray of the University of Indiana, and Gary Donathan of Oklahoma City University.

Graduate courses for band directors were taught by Jacobsen and Imig. These classes were "Marching Band Techniques" and "Choral Literature and Techniques."

WTSC Band Camp will be held July 16-28 next summer, according to Dr. Crager.

PICTURED ABOVE are members of the party which returned last week from Hawaii. The 30-member tour, which included six Canyon persons, visited Honolulu. They flew to the islands on a jet averaging 590 miles an hour. They're shouting "Aloha" at the photographer.

Hawaii Called Paradise By 6 Canyon Visitors

"Hawaii is just a paradise, that's all."

That statement by Dr. M. B. Measamer of Canyon summarizes the experiences of six Canyon residents who were members of a tour that returned last week from Hawaii.

The six were Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Mrs. N. A. Croson, Mrs. Midge Culbertson, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, and Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Measamer.

Four are conducted to various parts of the United States annually by Dr. Measamer, who is head of the geography department at West Texas State College.

The friendliness of the Hawaiian people was the most impressive thing to the Texans. "They met you at the airport with leis and kisses. The women are kissed on the cheek by the Hawaiian men, and the men by the women. Then they throw these leis around your neck," Mrs. Bellah said.

The spirit of friendliness permeates the islands, although the airport greetings are commercial, Dr. Measamer said.

Among the guided tours the group took was a trip to the pineapple fields where harvest was underway.

Pineapple, one of the islands' chief industries, is grown in strips about 50 feet wide, with a road between each strip. A mechanical picker equipped with a conveyor belt that reaches out over the rows passes down the road, and field hands pick the ripe pineapple and set them on the belt. Ripe pineapples are picked for consumption on the islands, while not-ripe pineapples are sent to the canneries.

"That's the reason why the pineapples there taste so much better than the ones we get here," Dr. Measamer said.

The island of Lanai, sixth in size in the Hawaiian chain, is devoted almost exclusively to pineapple raising. It is the island where Jim Dole began the production of the fruit and is still the main source of pineapple.

Barges from Lanai deliver the fruit to the world's largest pineapple factory, located on the island of Oahu, in eight days. The factory, which employs 8,000 people, manufactures sliced and crushed pineapple and juice.

A popular food on the island is the Pineapple Bowl, a salad plate made of sliced fruits and either sherbert or cottage cheese poured into a hollowed-out half of a pineapple, Dr. Measamer said.

Miss Clifton and Mr. Harding will be wed Sunday in the Highland Baptist Church in Amarillo.

SOCIETY NOTES

BY ANNELLE DUGAN
Nine-year-old Kathy Pettit, is quite a talker.

Kathy, along with her mother, Mrs. Betty Pettit, and two brothers and a sister, is just back from Germany, and Kathy gives a vivid portrayal of life overseas.

Kathy described the poverty of the German children and said it forced them to scavenge in trash barrels for old clothes and toys. Milk cartons, with their wax coats, are especially valuable as fuel, Kathy said.

Just wondering, but should women in television advertisements always be hilariously happy as they do their chores? Is doing each job with Brand X enough to make up for the drudgery of some chores—or is there no such thing as drudgery in TV advertising? Would an unhappy or impatient woman, shown occasionally, make a more realistic ad?

Mrs. Bellah said her favorite food was coconut syrup.

The group took a four-hour tour of Pearl Harbor, where they saw the U. S. Battleships Arizona and Utah, sunk during the surprise attack on the American fleet in December, 1941.

A memorial is under construction over the Arizona, where more than 1,100 sailors lost their lives.

Sights in Honolulu, which is on the main island of Oahu, included what is billed as the world's largest shopping center, and the palace of Queen Liliuokalani, the only palace in the United States. The state legislature and other officials now have offices in the palace, but a new state building is being prepared.

Mrs. Warwick, Mrs. Culbertson, and Mrs. Bellah attended a laua at the Moana-Surf Rider Hotel, where the group stayed in Honolulu.

Mrs. Bellah explained the laua as a traditional Polynesian religious ceremony. It was held under the Banyan tree, where Robert Louis Stevenson wrote many of his poems.

Another landmark in Honolulu is the aluminium dome where the television show "Hawaiian Eye" is filmed.

Mrs. Bellah and Mrs. Culbertson took a side trip to the island of Hawaii.

Arriving in Hilo, they saw damage done by the May tidal waves following earthquakes in Chile. Not much rebuilding has been done yet.

A tour of the island included a trip to Haleakala Crater, a volcano which erupted in 1959. Mrs. Bellah said seismograph records indicate another eruption is coming. Guides told her that many tourists filled the road to the crater during the 1959 eruption, despite warnings that such action was dangerous.

Little League Picnic at Lake

The Little League Dodgers held a picnic at Buffalo Lake last week for team members and their families.

Highlight of the event was boatrides in Glenn Haynes' boat. Coach Jim Boyce and Manager Lee Roy Moreland were given gift certificates.

MRS. J. O. PARKER of Canyon sailed from New Orleans August 3 for an 11-day cruise to Puerto Rico. During the voyage she will visit San Juan, Mayaguez, and Ponce, Puerto Rico. Mrs. Parker spent a day in New Orleans sightseeing before sailing.

Hidden Treasures Throughout Museum

RANCH RECORDS will remain almost inaccessible until the museum is able to better display its artifacts.

DONNA BOLES of Lubbock holds a child's garment which is being stored, in addition to other artifacts, in a trunk in the pioneer's bedroom at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum.

INDIAN REMAINS are considered quite important at the museum. But Jack Hughes has a problem--no space in which to display the Indian remains.

Former JA Ranch Head Dies At 73

Former manager of the JA Ranch, William G. Word, died Monday week in Adair Hospital, Clarendon.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday morning in the First Presbyterian Church of Clarendon.

Word was born November 19, 1886, in Wise County, and came to the Panhandle area with his parents in November of 1890. He was engaged in ranching and for many years served as county clerk of Donley County.

Mr. Word served as manager of the JA Ranch from 1939 until his retirement several years ago.

Survivors include Mrs. Word, four sons, and two daughters.

A college student left this sign on his door: "Call me at seven o'clock. It is absolutely necessary that I get up at seven. Make no mistake. Keep knocking until I answer. Try again at ten."

Fairview Breezes

BY MRS. J. W. WESLEY

It has been hot and dry in our vicinity. A rain would be appreciated.

Virginia Liston returned from a vacation to Salt Lake City, Utah, where she visited her daughter and her son, Mrs. Liston, her daughter, and son-in-law vacationed in Wyoming and Yellowstone Park. She came home Tuesday.

Woodrow Wesley is working the Harney Rogers farm.

G. E. Wesley was being treated by a doctor for infected gums and is doing fair at home.

We hear that S. A. Evans has purchased a farm west of Canyon and bought a house and is having it moved onto the place.

Gene Shipman is doing "fine" at home since his recent accident.

The Hill Smith family visited Raton, Albuquerque, and Santa Fe while vacationing. They also fished in the mountains.

STOP

BY GAYLE McANALLY

Ever wonder if a museum has anything that isn't on display?

We did, thinking that at the most there might be a roomful of artifacts not available to public eye.

When asked if there were any such room in the Panhandle Plains Museum, museum director C. Boone McClure assured us such a room existed. "In fact, every spare room and all available space is being used for storage," McClure said.

Jack Hughes, curator of paleontology, joined with McClure to say that "every nook and cranny is packed."

Proving his point that the museum needs three times the amount of space which it now has, McClure began opening small closets--all stacked to the ceiling with every available inch of space being utilized.

In one closet were 45 Hindu prayer rugs, around 300 pieces of sterling silver (including a flip-top beer mug), several hundred coins, walking canes (the museum owns about 200 of these--none on display now), and various other interesting "pieces of history."

Innocently lying on a shelf in another receptacle is an elegantly framed set of two pictures, McClure declared that "if the signature can be authenticated--and we have no reason to doubt that it can't--the pictures would be worth about $100,000."

Six hundred branding irons are making their home BEHIND a display on brands, instead of being exhibited because of the lack of space.

Numerous revolvers and other guns are stored in nearly every place where anything is stored. A World War I machine gun can be found in one of the larger store rooms.

McClure adds that several old-time cars have been dismantled and are hidden away until display space can be found.

While over 300 of Frank Reaugh's paintings are displayed in the Mary E. Hudspeth room, another 100 or more by the same artist line walls in storage rooms.

A beautiful French provincial mirror and stand are undignifiedly placed in storage rooms lying on their backsides so as to utilize space.

Perhaps a guided tour of the museum would be something like this:

"I'm sure you all noticed and enjoyed the pictures of Frank Reaugh which are located in the west wing of the front room. I do wish you could enjoy his records of picture sales, his notes, and photographic plates made by him as he painted--but these objects are behind the bed in the pioneer's bedroom to your right. We don't have room for them here in the display space."

"And by the way--that trunk in the bedroom is also filled with artifacts. Again, we don't have room!"

"On your right, you will see a replica of an old-time sheriff's office. And behind the walls are newspaper files."

"Now, to the left of you are the fixtures from an early-day bank. Notice the records placed about in the room. Yes, sir, the door to the bank is locked. You see, we have several valuable mosaic tile murals in boxes in there. I observe your smiles. Yes, no place to display them."

"Many of you have never seen an authentic saloon. Here are some fixtures on your right which are genuine. Under the bar are stored newspapers and ranch records."

On and on the imaginary tour can continue all over the museum. Waiting for their turn to be displayed for a time, artifacts hide about and even in (as in the case of the trunk and bar) the exhibits.

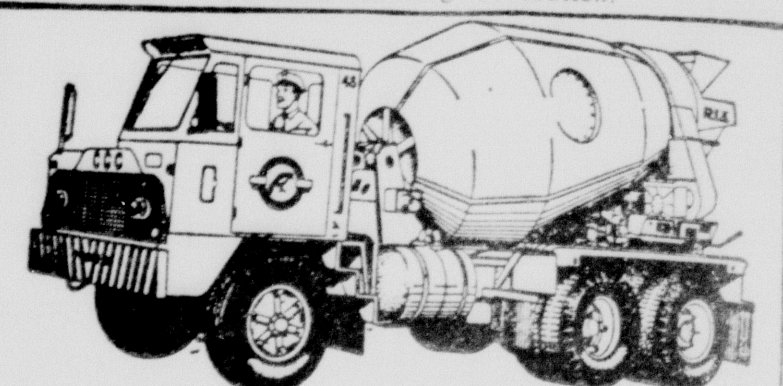

Downstairs, behind some of the Indian exhibit showcases, are rooms which were once Hughes' laboratories. At one time he had enough room to work on specimens but now stored items have crowded him nearly "out of business."

Shelf after shelf is filled with Indian burials which have not been processed, fossils in various stages of preparation, Indian baskets, tools and war instruments.

McClure assures that there are enough interesting pieces to fill a building the size of the present structure.

Perhaps the most unusual contribution without space is a log cabin that was the property of Charles Goodnight, McClure said that it is not packed away in the museum--it's still at the original location.

Shakespeare Festival Opens Tonight With "12th Night"

A Texas Shakespeare Festival will open tonight at West Texas State College with the production of "Twelfth Night."

The newly organized Shakespeare Festival will present Shakespeare's immortal comedy as its inaugural production on the WT campus in front of the Education Building tonight, tomorrow night, and Saturday.

Curtain time will be at 8:15 p.m.

A group of theatre and drama majors organized the festival after many of them attended the University of Colorado's production of "Antony and Cleopatra" at Boulder July 30-31.

All have been members of the Palo Duro Players this summer and most have been active in the Branding Iron Theatre during their college years.

Officers elected for the coming year are Marti Hinson, Groom, and Erin Wertenberger, Hereford, co-presidents; Rena Aikens, Amarillo, first vice-president; Gary Wyatt, Dimmitt, second vice-president.

Sheri Davis, Canadian, secretary; Guy Paul Yates, Amarillo, treasurer; J. Scott Glenn, Borger, historian; and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Moore, Canyon, directors.

"Twelfth Night" will be the second Shakespeare play given "under the stars" by the college drama department. "As You Like It" was done in front of the Education Building in 1958. Tickets are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Members of the cast are Guy Paul Yates, Amarillo, Duke Orsino; James Perking, Midland; Sebastian; J. Scott Glenn, Borger; Antonio; Reggie Reeves, Canyon; Valentine; Russell Farr, Canyon; Voltimand; Truman Laughery, Canyon; Curio; Jerry Ballew, Perryton; Sir Toby Belch; Morris Westberry, Dimmitt; Feste; Erin Wertenberger, Hereford; Sir Andrew Aguecheek; Marti Hinson, Groom; the Countess Olivia; Rena Aikens, Amarillo; Viola; Rosalie Hunt, El Paso; Maria; William C. Smith, Dimmitt; a priest; Truman Laughery and Bill Harrison, both of Canyon, officers.

Moore toured England and Wales with the Martin-Harvey Shakespearean Company, who had "Twelfth Night" as one of the plays in their repertory. He also worked in this play in the Oregon Shakespeare Festival.

Mrs. Moore played in "Twelfth Night" at Oklahoma College for Women, and they have co-directed it several times, including an outdoor production at the University of Wyoming at Laramie.

Plans are being made for a repertory company next summer, Moore said. Anyone interested in joining the group is requested to contact the directors or any of the officers.

The group will also appreciate gifts of old clothing, draperies, bedspreads, costume jewelry, hats, and similar items that may be utilized for costumes, Moore said.

A railroad engineer got up on the wrong side of the bed one morning. The shower water was cold. A shoelace broke. His sock had a hole in it. His coffee was weak and his toast burned. His car wouldn't start and he had to take a taxi to work. He was late getting there so he sped his train up to 90 miles an hour. Just as he swung around a long curve, he saw another train roaring toward him on the same track.

He heaved a big sigh, turned slowly, and said to the fireman, "Did you ever have one of those days when everything goes wrong?"
